Missouri's 20-7 victory over then second-ranked Alabama last Monday night stunned a few folks down South, imagine what Memphis State's 31-20 shocker of seventh-ranked Auburn did in the Heart of Dixie Saturday.

The college football season is barely a week old and two Southern belles have had their coming-out parties ruined. It's enough to make Paul W. Bryant wish he were in a more tranquil field of endervor-like rasslin' bears.

Elsewhere on the first full weekend of the season, topranked Oklahoma began deballad, but if you think fense of its national championship by mauling Oregon 62-7 while Michigan and Ohio State slapped down a couple of Big Ten upstarts. Second-ranked Michigan trounced Wisconsin 23-6 and No. 3 Ohio State avenged its only regular-season defeat of 1974 by trimming No. 11 Michigan State 21-0.

No. 4 Southern California walloped Duke 35-7 Friday night while Missourt, No. 5 following its battering of Alabama, was idle. No. 6 Nebraska squeaked past Louisiana State 10-7, No. 8 Texas A&M blanked stubborn Mississippi 7-0 and No. 10 Penn State whipped Stanford

No. 9 Notre Dame debuts under Coach Dan Devine Monday night in a nationally televised game against Boston College at Foxboro, Mass.

In the Second Ten, No. 12 Texas buried Colorado State 46-0. No. 20 Tennessee repeated its Liberty Bowl victory over No. 14 Maryland, this time by a 28-8 count; Atlantic Coast Conference doormat Wake Forest kayoed No. 15 North Carolina State 30-22, No. 16 UCLA belted Iowa State 37-21 and No. 19 Florida bombed Southern Methodist 40-14.

Richard Williamson, a former player and coach at Alabama.

chalked up his first head coaching success in Memphis State's upset of Auburn. The triumph was keyed by sophomore Kippy Brown, who directed Memphis to a 24-0 halftime bulge, threw a touchdown pass in each half and gave Williamson a claim to fame besides being the receiver of Joe Namath's first touchdown pass

"This is a sweet one for the kids to beat someone who was ranked as high as Auburn was,'

Said Shug Jordan, beginning his 25th and final campaign as Auburn's coach, "You just can't give a team six turnovers in a half and expect to win."

Split end Tinker Owens and second-string running backs Horace Ivory and Jim Culbreath each scored twice against Oregon as Oklahoma stretched the nation's longest unbeaten skein to 30 games, Back-up quarterback Dean Blevins directed a 33-point secondquarter explosion after Steve Davis left with a pulled muscle.

"I really wasn't too pleased in the way we played in many respects," said Coach Barry Switzer, "but after we got the first 10 points it seemed to give us more drive. Offensively we just didn't play like we can. We scored a lot, but we had a lot given to us."

"The old man's pretty hap-py ... damn proud," said Woody Hayes, Ohio State's old man. "We chased that quarterback all over the lot. He was really chased. We forced him into most of those mistakes."

Michigan overpowered Wisconsin as Gordon Bell carried 28 times for 210 of the Wolverines' 394 rushing yards and caught a seven-yard scoring pass from freshman Rick Leach. Terry Luck's five-yard scoring pass to Bobby Thomas and Mike Coyle's 37-yard field goal enabled Nebraska to down LSU. Texas A&M's David Shipman scored the only touchdown on a four-yard run in the opening period and the Aggie defense held Ole Miss to 82 total yards.

Tom Donovan became the

'That's the best football first Penn State freshman to rush for more than 100 yards, scoring on a 61-yard gallop that gave the Nittany Lions an insurmountable 21-7 lead against Stanford.

Vail Equals Batting Steak

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Rookie Mike Vail of the New York Mets equalled the longest batting streak in the major leagues this season when he drilled a fourth-inning single against St. Louis to extend his string to 22 straight games. The hit, off John Denny, matched the 22-game streak by Boston's Denny Doyle in July and August. It also moved Vail within one game of the National League record for rookie streakhitting set by Philadelphia's Joe Rapp in 1921 and equalled by the Phils' Richie Ashburn in 1948. The major league record is 26 straight by Guy Curtright of the 1943 Chicago White Sox. Vail, who led the International League with a .342 average before being called up from Tidewater, has hit safely in 23 of his 25 games with New York and is one game away from matching the Mets' alltime hitting streak of 23 by Cleon Jones

British Win Wightman Cup

CLEVELAND (AP) — Glynis Coles gave Britain a second vear's lease on the Wightman Iowa City, Iowa, native to force Cup Sunday with a victory over Mona Schallau, after Chris Evert had kept the American hopes alive with a hard-fought 6-3, 7-6 victory over British ace Virginia Wade.

Miss Coles downed Miss Schallau 6-3, 7-6. The victory gave the British women an unbeatable 4-2 edge in the best-ofseven series, and the English doubles team of Miss Coles and Sue Barker beat Miss Evert and Miss Schallau 7-5, 6-4 to finish off the Americans. The Yanks started the third day's play down

Miss Coles said she played the singles point by point, with no particular strategy in mind. But team captain Miss Wade said she knew her charge would win.

"We won twice, just to say we could do it," Miss Wade said, referring to last year's Wightman triumph across the sea. She added that this year' victory strengthens the competition.

Miss Coles repeatedly drove a powerful backhand past the two service breaks in the first

In the second set, the petite brunet American brought the crowd of 5,000 to its feet as she fought off five match points for a service break. Then she won her serve to force the tie-breaker.

Miss Evert, the U.S. Open champ from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., broke Miss Wade's service in the fourth game of their first set without surrendering a point. They traded service breaks in the second set, but Miss Evert's radar-accurate passing shots proved too much even for Miss Wade's feathersoft drop shots and windmilling overheads.

Minnesota had taken a 14-7 lead in the Laird quarter on Ed Marinaro's oneyard run and a 74-yard interception return by Joe Blahak.

Memphis Defeats Steamer

MEMPHIS (AP) - The Memphis Grizzlies, with quarterback Danny White at the helm for this first time in a starting role, fought off a fourthquarter rally to defeat the Shreveport Steamer 34-23 in World Football League action Sunday.

White, an Arizona graduate, accounted for one of the Memphis touchdowns with a 17-yard pass to wide reciever Ed Marshall, and added another 156 yards in passing offense.

The Steamer was unable to generate any offense until D.C. Nobles, a University of Houston product, replaced quarterback Ed Hargett in the second half.

Whitworth Wins Southgate Open

Kathy Whitworth, bundled from head to toe against a biting wind and occasional drizzle, carded a 2-under-par 69 Sunday and won the $40,000 Southgate Open.

It was 75th victory in the tall Texan's long career and the $5,-700 first place check boosted her winnings for the year past $32,-

Her 54-hole total of 213, even par for the 6,203-yard Leawood South Country Club layout, was four stokes better than runner up Gerda Boykin, who fired a final round 70.

Sylvia Bertolaccini, the tour rookie from Argentina who held the lead after 36 holes, had trouble with her driver Sunday and limped in with a 75 for third-place money of $3,200. Jane Blalock, last year's cochampion, notched a 74-219 and fourth place, one stroke ahead of Jan Stephenson, whose 74 Sunday landed her in fifth

In a four-way tie for sixth at 220 were Kathy McMullen, Judy Rankin, Sandra Palmer and Marlene Hagge.

Beginning the final round one stroke behind Miss Bertolaccini, Miss Whitworth pulled even by the seventh hole after a halting start.

Miss Bertolaccini double-bogeyed the par-four sixth and on the seventh Miss Whitworth's two-outt birdie four drew her into a tie for the lead.

Debby Rhodes Debbie Meisterlin Patty Hayes At the turn Whitworth held a Millie Keeter

"That's when I first started thinking that I had a good chance to win it."

desegregtion program. Boehm, 16, boards the bus at Westport High in eastern Jefferson County for a ride to Central High downtown. Swain, 17, is bused from Male High downtown to Fern Creek in the county's southeast. They are among some 22,600 Jefferson County students, half of them white and half of them black, being bused to achieve racial balance in the city-county system. The system has about 124,000 students, about 20 per cent of them black. School opened Sept. 4 and was followed by a weekend of violent antibusing protests.

As some 1,000 National Guard troops stood by, armed guards rode the buses during the first full week of school.

Here are excerpts of how Boehm and Swain saw desegregation from inside the buses and schools.

BOEHM'S DIARY Wednesday, Sept. 3 -- -"I'm all for what busing means on the outside: equal education for blacks and whites . . . but I am against busing. I live less than half a mile from Westport, so why go to Central? Everyone I ran around with is still at Westport."

Thursday, Sept. 4 — "No trouble at all! Arrived at Westport 6:45 and said final goodat Central at 7:35 . . . "

Some of the students talked about busing. Boehm said. "Central's Student Council president ... said busing was the only way to equalize education . . . (and that) most of the problem was parents who didn't want their kids to be bused.

"The blacks were real nice. A lot of them asked about our schools and said they were a little worried about little brothers and sisters who had gone to Ballard and Westport. We did what we could to quiet their fears and explain that it wasn't so bad."

Friday, Sept. 5 — "Still no trouble . . . Attendance was up a great deal. For the most part, blacks and whites remain in their own groups . . . this atmosphere, however, is beginning to drop and more and more, the students are mingling."

Boehm said he watched newsfilm of protests that night. "What I saw on TV was unbelievable! How can people be so asinine . . . Most problems come from the parents — the kids are being agitated by the adults." Police said many of the rock and bottle throwers that night were teen-agers.

Monday, Sept. 8 — Made several parents angry at church yesterday when I said that as long as the parents stay home, the trouble will stop . . . The National Guard was on the buses today. I don't feel too much safer . . . I mean, is the Guard gonna have a shootout on the streets with a bunch of violence-prone protestors with a busload of kids in the crossfire?"

Friday, Sept. 12 — "The NBC people . . . asked me if busing has changed my day-to-day life. I told them no, except for having to get up earlier and getting home from school earlier. joked about the thing."

"We had a (football) pep rally sixth period and I hate pep rallies, but I could see the students are really getting school spirit. And I nope Central stops Trinity tomorrow." SWAIN'S DIARY Thursday, Sept. 4

"The bus driver seemed okay, but the ride was very tiring and boring. I thought at one time that I would never get off the bus. We were greeted by the principal . . .

"The teachers were okay and the white students didn't seem very talkative except in sixth period, when they were a little - except that I could hear the protesters (outside) and they kept breaking my concentration.

"I thought of the films on TV - what had happened to Boston, Charlotte. I became very tense and I now know what the students were going through.

"Then the bell rang. We boarded the buses and . . . passed by the protesters and we heard them saying things that weren't too pleasant

... it was a relief to get out of the neighborhood onto the open road where we joked about the thing."

Friday, Sept. 5 - "The second day of school was okay except my schedule was still messed up. When it was time to go home . . . things were beginning to happen, such as the protesters outside had grown in number since

"I know everybody felt very tense . . . at the front of the bus I noticed we had a police escort . . . soon we were at Male and then home, which was a relief.

"Later Friday night when everything started to happen I thought how could those white people do that to their own neighborhood ... they were only hurting themselves and their children . . .

Monday, Sept. 8 — "On the bus was an M.P. (National Guard Military Policeman) and a bus monitor. The day went on like a normal school day and a lot of people were getting their schedules fixed.

"The M.P. on the bus was okay, but there was only one on a bus and if a mob came after us it would be just like not having one.

"When it was time to go home everything was okay ... attendance has increased sharply.
